

SELF-EMPLOYMENT

STEP 1: Documents to verify your Established or Prospective Business

For Established self-employment enterprises you are required to submit one of the following:

- Federal income tax forms or quarterly income reports, such as:
 - Form 1040; and Schedule C, F, or SE federal income tax returns for the most recent tax year;
- One of the following to prove existence of the business:
 - Property titles, deeds, or rental agreement for the place of business;
 - Recent business bank, phone, utility, or insurance bill;
 - Recent state sales tax return;
 - Business records that provide proof of income and expenditures, such as:
 - Copies of money orders or checks received, and lists of individuals/customers served (if available); or
 - Personal wage records with third-party signed verification; or
- Business plans.

For Prospective self-employment enterprises you are required to submit one of the following:

- Property titles or deeds for the place of business;
- Rental agreement or letter from a property owner showing the customer plans to open a business; or
- Other evidence indicating the customer is preparing to open a business, such as:
 - advertising, state tax registration, assumed name certificate;
 - business plan; or
 - bank account information.

STEP 2: Documents needed to verify your Business Income

You are required to submit one of the following:

- Tax Return
- Self-employment 1049 Child Care Form current 3 months
- Profit and Loss Statement current 3 months
- Documentation that provides information on the amount of income generated and the associated business expenses, which must include invoices signed by participants' customers and contain:
 - customer names and contact information;
 - dates and locations of services provided; and
 - amounts received; andBusiness expense receipts that substantiate the expenses to be deducted from the gross income, when applicable.

Este documento contiene información importante sobre los requisitos, los derechos, las determinaciones y las responsabilidades del acceso a los servicios del sistema de la fuerza laboral. Hay disponibles servicios de idioma, incluida la interpretación y la traducción de documentos, sin ningún costo y a solicitud.

